

Policy Against Corruption

POLICY

EWB-SWE and people acting on behalf of EWB-SWE will under no circumstances accept or offer bribes, embezzlement, extortion or fraud in connection with EWB-SWE activities in Sweden or abroad.

RULES

People acting on behalf of EWB-SWE shall not use their position, power or trust for personal gain.

EWB-SWE does not accept donations towards the organisation that are given with the intention to gain benefits that are not regulated in a common agreement.

People acting on behalf of EWB-SWE will not give or accept valuable personal gifts as a result of their involvement in the organisation.

EWB-SWE requires that all partners act in accordance with this policy in all activities carried out in collaboration with EWB-SWE.

All people acting on behalf of EWB-SWE carry responsibility to act in accordance with this policy and to report actions that are against it.

Corrupt actions that are, or are suspected to be, against the current legislation of the country of concern shall be reported to the police.

All incidences of corruption or suspected corrupt practice in connection with EWB-SWE activities in Sweden or abroad shall be reported to the Secretary General or the Board of EWB-SWE.
